

I believe that the FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. My family has benefited by not having our family time interrupted at home. We used to get about one phone call an evening, now we may get one phone call per month.